Increasing the number of deportations in the context of regular procedures as well as through readmission agreements with third countries has become key in EU migration policy.

- What are the main policy objectives of deportations and are these being met?
- What are some of the impacts of deportations on migrants, their families, the societies they leave behind and what is their situation post-deportation?
- What are the key human rights safeguards in deportations and are these being upheld?

Language: English
